To the Democratic Voters of Bourbon county:

Owing to a vacancy on the Democratic ticket as to the nomination for the office of County School Superintendent, and because of the further fact that the time is limited within which a canvass can be made, I take this means, through the public prints, of announcing myself as a candidate for the Democratic nomination, which has thus become vacant, and of submitting my claim to the Democratic voters of this county.

I received the fundamental principles of my education in the rural schools of this county, completing the college course at North Middletown, and I have had several years' experience as a teacher in the public schools of Bourbon county. During the time that I have been engaged in teaching, I have studied the needs and requirements of the common schools of this State. During that time I have also continued my studies, and now hold a State teacher's certificate, and am legally if not otherwise, qualified to enter at once, upon the duties of this office.

I desire further to say, that my entire family have always been earnest Democratic workers in this county, and that no member of it has ever asked any office at the hands of the Democratic party. I have not personally solicited anyone to vote for my interests, whom have not considered sufficiently well-informed as to my qualifications, because of personal experience and friendship with me, to support my candidacy. In fact, the matter has been taken up by a few of my friends, who have earnestly urged upon me to make this race, and I have consented that my name might be used in that connection.

I respectfully solicit your support and influence in this campaign, as one who is familiar with the common schools of this county and who is interested in their advancement.

I desire further to say to you, that my ambition in life has always been to prepare myself in the educational line of work, and I have made this a special study.

I respectfully submit this to you as a fair and candid statement of facts in regard to my candidacy, and assure you that I will greatly appreciate any thing that may be done in my behalf.

Respectfully,
MABEL ROBBINS.

Notice.

Being busily occupied with my school, it will be impossible for me to personally solicit interest in my candidacy. Having been defeated for Supt. of Schools by the late incumbent I feel that I am now the logical candidate and I shall be grateful to all Democrats who will stand by me next Friday.

MRS. F. SUTHERLAND.

Examination for County School Superintendent.

As much discussion has been going on in regard to the qualifications for County School Superintendent, the following official letter should settle all questions along that line:

Judge Denis Dundon, Paris, Ky.
My Dear Sir:—I am in receipt of your communication under date of October 8th, notifying me of the death of F. L. McChesney, County Superintendent of Schools, Bourbon County, Kentucky, I hereby appoint and select Wednesday, October 13, 1909, as the day for a special examination to fill said vacancy in the office of County Superintendent of Schools, in accordance with Sections 4399 and 4436 Kentucky Statutes, Carroll Edition. You are directed to notify the County Clerk and to conduct said examination on the day specified according to law. The questions will be mailed to you under separate cover.

Very truly yours,
J. G. CRABBE, Supt.

More Republican Talk.

It was rumored last evening that Mr. J. W. Bacon would make the race for Mayor of the city of Paris against Mr. J. T. Hinton, the Democratic nominee, that in fact, he had even been so bold as to have approached several Democrats, soliciting their support. Now, "G," you are all right as President of the Paris Base Ball Club, and don't be touted up against such a tough proposition as this, think twice, before you allow your Republican friends to use you as their sacrificial lamb. Take the advice of a Democratic friend. Don't you do it "G," for it will be just the same thing as a "howl" to the Democrats that "old Democratic warhorse," John I.

Massachusetts Democracy.

The Democratic convention of Massachusetts has adopted an excellent platform. The first plank deals with the tariff question and demands an immediate reduction of tariff duties on the necessities of life. It also contains a plank opposing imperialism and favoring the popular election of United States Senators and direct nominations. In addition to these planks and some good planks on the labor question, it declares for the election of "only those candidates for the Legislature pledged to the ratification of a constitutional amendment for an income tax." The democrats of Massachusetts are to be congratulated upon the stand they have taken on these questions, and especially are they to be commended for insisting that candidates for the legislature shall be pledged to the ratification of the income tax amendment. The opponents of the income tax have counted on all of the New England states to oppose the amendment, but they are likely to be disappointed. Among the mass of the people the sentiment is strong in favor of the income tax, and it could not be a matter of surprise if a number of Republican candidates for the legislature were left at home if they refuse to promise to ratify the income tax amendment.

The President's Sermon.

The Indianapolis News, a Republican paper, has the following editorial on the address of President Taft while at Salt Lake City, Utah, a few Sundays ago:

In his sermon in the Mormon tabernacle a few Sundays ago President Taft argued strongly for peace and good will. Peace and good will are excellent things, and there is no quality that he praised that ought not to adorn our lives. And yet we believe that many a man, quite untainted by bigotry, will think of many other texts that might have been properly expounded yesterday. "What concord," asks St. Paul, "hath Christ with Belial?" There thus appear to be some things with which the Christian can not maintain concord. Perhaps Mormonism, with its greedy, grasping for power, its political deals, its polygamy and the rest, is one of those things.
Every one who has lived under its sway knows what its temper is, what its ambitions are. Can we, ought we, to live at peace with it? Many Americans, and Americans who believe in the widest religious liberty, and the broadest toleration, will answer this question in the negative. "What fellowship," the apostle again asks, "has righteousness with unrighteousness, and what communion hath light with darkness?" There thus appear to be limits to the concord of which Mr.
Taft is so good natured a preacher.

We remember the sojourn of another American president among the Mormons—the late Benjamin Harrison.
He, too, addressed Mormon audiences, and he improved his opportunity by glorifying the American home, president over by one wife. And the whole nation applauded his courage and his steadfastness to the highest American ideal. He, too, was a lover of peace, but he did not think that it could be established or maintained between two irreconcilable forces. We do not share the fears felt by many at the spread of Mormonism. For, in our opinion, the whole tendency of the times is against it, as far as it stands for polygamy.
So, while it is undoubtedly a dangerous force at the present moment, it will become less dangerous as the years go by. But there is a conflict, a conflict between Mormonism and the law, and between two social orders.

The so-called Gentiles who live in Utah know how powerful is the tyranny of the Mormon oligarchy, know how corrupt it is.

In our opinion it would have been far better had the President kept away from the tabernacle and preached peace. In this he followed the precedent set by his predecessor. But it was a bad precedent nevertheless.
There is nothing in it to which anyone can take exception. On the contrary, the message is one that the American people as a whole needed to hear. But the words would have had greater weight had they been spoken from the pulpit of the church of which the President himself is a member. His appearance in a Mormon pulpit will be construed—mistakenly, of course—by the Mormons themselves as a sort of official recognition of their system.
And this will have the effect of weakening the influence which his excellent counsel would otherwise have.

No one of course, believes that any serious consequences will flow from the action of the president. No one will because of it question his devotion to American ideals, and certainly no intelligent American citizen will for a moment imagine that he had any idea of "recognizing" Mormonism. But he has nevertheless made a mistake. The people in Utah who ought to have the support of our presidents are those who constitute the Gentile minority, for they are our people, in a sense that the Mormons are not; and it is they who are holding the American standards, and are doing it under great difficulties and in the face of many temptations to abandon them. We should think they would feel somewhat discouraged and disheartened today.

Thursdays for Kickers.

The world does move. Ten years ago the "kicker" got about as much attention as the "knocker" does today. Between the "kicker" and the "knocker" there's a difference. Perhaps there wasn't ten years ago, but there is now; and the difference is in favor of the "kicker," for he has objected to some purpose and is still doing so, while the "knocker" hasn't.
Perhaps the "knocker" will sometime gain standing but he certainly isn't "in it" with the "kicker" down in Cincinnati.

According to a press dispatch Mayor Galvin, of Cincinnati, has set apart Thursdays for "kickers. On Thursdays they may go to City Hall and register their complaints with the Mayor or his secretary, with the assurance that they will be investigated. There is no promise that all complaints will be further acted upon, but those which led to disclosures regarding the public service, the streets, sidewalks, nusances, etc., will enlist the power and authority of the Mayor. The "kicker" who really kicks against something that ought not to exist, will be regarded as doing the city a service.

So the "kicker" has at last kicked himself into official recognition in Cincinnati, and he seems to be making considerable progress in other cities, from San Francisco to Pittsburg, and from New Orleans to Chicago. The "kicker" kicks at anything that can be improved, from filthy streets to grafting officials; who appeared to be lining their own pocketbooks at public expense. For the "kicker." Let the world continue to move.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

It is the best of all medicines for the cure of diseases, disorders and weaknesses peculiar to women. It is the only preparation of its kind devised by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in the diseases of women.

It is a safe medicine in any condition of the system. THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol and no injurious habit-forming drugs and which creates no craving for such stimulants.

THE ONE REMEDY so good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on each outside bottle-wrapper and attest to the truthfulness of the same under oath.

It is sold by medicine dealers everywhere, and any dealer who hasn't it can get it. Don't take a substitute of unknown composition for this medicine of known composition. No counterfeit is as good as the genuine and the druggist who says something else is "just as good as Dr. Pierce's" is either mistaken or is trying to deceive you for his own selfish benefit. Such a man is not to be trusted. He is trifling with your most priceless possession—your health—may be your life itself. See that you get what you ask for.

THE MILITARY SQUARE.

A Formation Borrowed by Wallace From the Flemings.

The greatest of all Scottish anniversaries is that of Bannockburn, fought in the year 1314. Apart from its bearing on the independence of Scotland, the battle will always have an exceptional interest from the military point of view, as Bannockburn may be said to have been the birthplace of the British square. "Proud Edward's" army mainly consisted of cavalry, while that of the Scots, on the other hand, was almost exclusively composed of foot folk armed with the spear, and these Bruce threw into "schiltroms," or oblong squares, a formation borrowed by Wallace from the Flemings, who had employed it with success at Courtray to resist the charge of the English cavalry.

Hitherto the mounted mail clad knight had carried everything before him, but Courtray and Bannockburn proved that he was powerless to break resolute spear armed infantry drawn up in "schiltrom," or hedgehog, formation, and these two battles revolutionized the tactics of the continent and of our own island. Profiting by the lesson which had been taught them at Bannockburn, the English applied the tactics of the Scots with brilliant success at Crecy and still more at Agincourt. As it was the Scots who may be said to have originated the British square at Bannockburn, so it was they again who at Balaklava were the first to discard it with their "thin red line," and now, owing to our changed conditions of warfare, it is discarded altogether.—London Chronicle.

MOHAMMEDANS OF INDIA.

Superstition Seems to Govern Most of Their Actions.

Mohammedans of India are very superstitious. No Mohammedan will take a bath on Sunday or Tuesday. But if one bathes on Wednesday all misfortunes and misery that are in store for him till the next Wednesday will be averted. As a rule, all Mohammedans bathe on Fridays before going to perform the Jumma prayers. For donning new clothes Saturday, Sunday and Tuesday are regarded as bad days. If any one dons a new dress or puts on a new cloth or allows his tailor to cut a piece of cloth on these days, he will live a miserable life till that dress or cloth gets torn or is thrown away. If a shirt is torn and if the wearer wants to stitch it, it must be taken off, for if it is stitched while on the body the person will soon die. A Mohammedan will never allow a barber to come near him on Tuesdays, for Tuesdays and Saturdays and Sundays are bad days for shaving. If absolutely necessary he will get himself shaved on Saturday or Sunday, but never on Tuesday, as his star is supposed to fall in blood if he does so. If one receives money or some valuable thing, it is taken with the right hand, for if it is taken with the left the person receiving it is said to forget all about it very soon or to mislay it. A devout Mohammedan will not start on a journey on Wednesday, for it is believed he will never return home safely if he does so. And it is said that even a snake never ventures out of its hole on this day.

A Snake Story.

The family were at dinner when there came a tap at a door seldom opened. Winning no attention, it was repeated and again a third time, though more softly, and then the door was swung back and, behold, there was a snake, knocking at the portals of hospitality! Down upon its head, in conformity with the decree of tradition and with Ezra's understanding of scriptural direction, crunched a British boot. It was a mother snake, who, having bravely overcome her fear of man, was seeking sustenance, not for herself, perhaps, though she was starving, but more likely for the little ones that were found in the grass by the brook. Thus for once, at any rate, did the craftiness of the devil succumb to the instinct of motherhood.—George B. M. Harvey in North American Review.

The "Macaroni."

The "macaroni" were exquisites or fops who in England and France led the fashions from 1780 to 1785 and were distinguished by an immense knot of artificial hair worn on the top of their heads. A small cocked hat which perched ridiculously on their topknot, satin or brocade coats and small clothes fitting tightly to the body and silk stockings with ribbon garters composed the costume of these fashionable gentlemen, who invariably carried a long walking stick with tassels attached and frequently a bouquet tied to the handle and encouraged a mincing and affected gait and manner. There was during the war for independence a body of Maryland soldiers who on account of their showy uniforms were called "macaroni."

An Indigestion Remedy Free

Many people who are otherwise healthy suffer from indigestion, or dyspepsia. When you consider that the stomach and allied digestive organs are the most important organs of the body, it would seem that a disorder there is to be taken very seriously.

Dyspeptics cannot eat the things they like; food sours in the stomach; then chronic constipation begins, or, in other cases, you have been constipated all along, and the stools are forced and irregular.

But there is no use letting indigestion go until it becomes chronic and undermines your health. It is good advice to suggest to you that you go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the wonderful cure for stomach, liver and bowel troubles. That is what C. Fowler, of Carson City, Mich., did and he is well today. Others who did the same and are cured are Ida A. Fortune, of Grand Junction, Tenn.; B. F. Thompson, of Shenandoah, Ia., who actually considers that it saved his life. You can obtain a 50-cent or $1 bottle of the druggist, and, taken according to directions, it will probably be all you need. It is a liquid, acts gently, never gripes, and, besides the laxative effect, contains exceptional tonic properties which tone the stomach, and that is what is especially needed in indigestion.

All sufferers from indigestion who have never used Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can obtain a free test bottle by writing the doctor. It will be sent direct to your home without any charge. In this way thousands have proven to their own satisfaction Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the very remedy they needed to cure indigestion. When once you use this grand remedy you will throw violent cathartics, tablets, salts, etc., away.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 500 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

Cat is Escort.

There is a black cat in Thomason, Conn., that makes a point of escorting women and children home. When the party reaches its destination the cat returns to this place and escorts other persons in the way, keeping up this strange action until about 10 o'clock at night.

Consumption of Happy Romance

The wedding of Miss Kate Turley of Mt. Sterling to Mr. Everett Hopkins of Little Rock, which will take place Friday, October 15, at the home of the bride-to-be at 3 o'clock p. m. will be the consummation of a happy romance. Miss Turley is the pretty and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Turley, of Montgomery county. It was on October 15, 1907 when a birthday party was tendered to the bride-to-be that she first met the prospective bridegroom. The latter made known to Miss Turley the fact that it was also the anniversary of his own birth and when further comparisons were ascertained their days on earth were exactly the same. An attachment sprang up that ripened into love and on Friday the happy couple will not only celebrate their birthdays but will partake of the wedding cake that will be served at a reception at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hopkins.

The attendants for the ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Mr. Clark, pastor of the Mt. Sterling Christian church. The wedding will be witnessed by the immediate relatives and friends of the contracting parties.

The bride is an accomplished young woman and an accomplished musician. The bridegroom is a prosperous young farmer and a son of Esquire and Mrs. J. H. Hopkins.

A Dandy of 1770.

From an English newspaper printed in the year 1777 is the following description of a dandy: "A few days ago a macaroni made his appearance in the assembly rooms at Whitehaven, dressed in a mixed silk coat, pink satin waistcoat and breeches covered with an elegant silk net, white silk stockings with pink curls, pink satin shoes and large pearl buttons, a mushroom colored stock covered with fine point lace, hair dressed remarkably high and stuck full of pearl pins."

Utter Contempt.

"I s'pose you wouldn't marry me if I were the only man on earth?"
"I wouldn't even be engaged to you," responded the girl, "if you were the only man at a summer resort."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

J. L. Yandell, superintendent of construction for Contractor Mike Shultz, in the building of the interurban line between Lexington and Nicholasville, was fatally shot in the abdomen and leg Saturday afternoon. Vimont. We lived in hope that he might still remain among us but having a son at the Leland Stanford University of California, and two other sons having previously graduated from this institution, he felt it his duty to return to his second land of adoption. We wish them all the success possible and trust that at some time in the future they may return to us.

After Willson.

"Pool your tobacco," is the appeal made by Commissioner of Agriculture M. C. Rankin, as he starts his row on Gov. Willson, who issued his sensational statement last Monday morning urging the independent to form leagues and shoot, if necessary, in the alleged defense of their homes.

The statement of Commissioner Rankin is the first of the guns that will be fired broadside on Governor Willson by the members of the administration whose anger at him is at white heat for issuing his untimely advice to the independents.

This is the last week in the great battle for the pool men and Commissioner Rankin is going to take the lead of the administration on the side of the pool. There will be plenty for Governor Willson to answer when he gets back from Boston.

Tobacco Sales.

Tobacco buyers have been active in this section for the past ten days, and the following sales have taken place.

Col. Dan Peed bought of Messrs. Brooks and Brutus Clay 35,000 pounds of tobacco for which he paid the sum of 12 cents per pound straight.

At Little Rock, this county, John Brennan sold to Joe Booth 40,000 pounds of tobacco at 12 cents per pound straight.

Near Leesburg, T. J. Shropshire & Sons sold to the Lexington Tobacco warehouse Company 30,000 pounds of tobacco in three crop lots at from 8 to 10 cents per pound.

D. G. Taylor has bought of Ed Delaney 9,000 pounds of tobacco at 10 cents per pound, and of Ed Turner 20,000 pounds at the same price. The latter crop was sold in advance of planting.

Insurance Man Gone.

The whereabouts of Mr. Hurst McCarthy, of Lexington, an agent for the Commonwealth Life Insurance Company, who boards at 25 West Maxwell street, in that city, is puzzling his friends and employers. The last seen of Mr. McCarthy at his boarding house was Tuesday morning a week ago, when he left saying he was going to the office.

After reaching the office he left a note to Mr. Tilley, the superintendent of the company, saying he would see him at 10:30 o'clock but nothing has been seen or heard of him since then.

Mr. McCarthy was unmarried and had no troubles as far as is known. His parents and friends are greatly alarmed over his sudden disappearance. He is well known in Paris having lived here.

Funeral of Mrs. Alexander.

The funeral of Mrs. Lucy F. Alexander, who died very suddenly on Sunday night at her home at Woodburn Farm, near Midway was held at the family residence Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The services were conducted by her pastor, the Rev. Nelson H. Rout of Versailles, assisted by the Rev. J. W. Tyler of Midway. The pallbearers were: Dr. A. J. A. Alexander, Dr. John Scott, of Lexington, and Messrs. Kenneth Alexander, Joseph Carter, William E. Simms and Lucas Broadhead. The interment took place in the State Cemetery at Frankfort.

Mrs. Alexander was the widow of the late A. J. Alexander, her maiden name being Miss Fullerton, and her native home Chillicothe, Ohio. She was a most lovable woman. Many were her deeds of charity, she being always a liberal giver to any and all worthy causes. Few women who have lived in Central Kentucky have been as greatly beloved and highly esteemed as she, since she became the mistress of the famous Woodburn estate.

Old Soldiers Entertained.

The annual dinner given by the hard Hawes Chapter, D. of C., to the ex-Confederate soldiers of Bourbon at the court house, Saturday, was a most enjoyable affair. Forty gray haired ex-Confederates gathered around the long table, which was laden with delicious meats and in fact everything the market afforded. Mr. John W. Boulden of Maysville a former Bourbon boy asked the divine blessing.

Previous to the sumptuous spread the old comrades assembled in the Circuit Court room for a love feast and recounting of the stirring times of 1861-5. Judge Russell Mann presided the principal address being delivered by Capt. James R. Rogers.

At 2 o'clock p. m. General James Arnold, of Covington, spoke eloquently of the women of the south and north and paid a glowing tribute in memory of the part they took in the conflict.

The following were present: Joseph A. Miller, Martin Bowles, E. P. Thomason, W. A. Morris, Jos. E. Hedges, Lott Young, Lexington; Samuel Talbot, C. H. Meng, C. F. Dilake, James M. Arnold, Covington; Capt. T. E. Moore, Lexington; John W. Boulden, Maysville, John C. Bedford, Geo. W. Morrow, N. C. Rogers, Russell Mann, Pat Shea, Elisha Neal, George Gregory, Allen Kiser, William Cunningham, Edward Rice, Capt. Jas. R. Rogers, J. Henry Holt, J. H. McCannay, O. M. Shanks, J. B. Baker, Pewee Valley; William Stipp, Dr. C. J. Clarke, A. L. Hulse, Cynthiana; Dr. R. D. Weaver, L. J. Fretwell, R. L. DeJarnett, Buckner Woodford, Newton Current, Col. George M. Edgar, Gano Hildreth, Willis Goodman, J. T. Quisenberry and J. Harry Brent.

A REUNION.

At a recent meeting of the Richard Hawes Chapter U. D. C., a notice of the meeting of the Confederate veterans was presented, and the subject of a lunch discussed, whereupon each daughter present signified her willingness by a unanimous vote, sealed with a smile, which expressed the ever tender desire to be able to discharge a pleasant duty.

October 9 was set apart for this meeting and as the day dawned clear and serene, many old soldiers were induced to leave their homes, until the number present was forty six. Those from a distance were Messrs. James M. Arnold, Covington; A. L. Hulse, Cynthiana; J. W. Boulden, Maysville, Lott Young, Capt. T. E. Moore, Lexington, and Mr. Baker, of Pewee Valley.

Long before the time arrived for the veterans to assemble at the court house, the daughters were seen moving to and fro dispensing their labor and love, and during the business hours of the morning, which was presided over by Judge Russell Mann, a delicious lunch was being prepared and tastily arranged to await the coming of the "old soldier." Seated around these tables laden with all the good things devised by the best cooks in Bourbon county, with bowed head, the invocation of Divine blessing was asked by J. W. Boulden.

While the scene was very impressive the writer recalled to mind the ones who were present at the last dinner given by the Daughters, and who has since answered the "long roll call," she noted the vacant chairs and missed the kind appreciating smile of those gone. Rev. Dr. E. H. Rutherford, Messrs. Alfred Wornall, A. T. Forsyth, Charles Penn, John D. Penn, Garrard Holt and William Kendall. May their memories ever live in history and may we, the Daughters of the Confederacy ever cherish and reverence through all time.

The afternoon was greatly enjoyed by reminiscence talks from James M. Arnold, Col. Geo. M. Edgar and Capt. James R. Rogers.

Give Us a Day Service.

The question now being agitated is will Paris get day service for light and power from the Paris Electric Light Company? At the recent meeting of the stockholders it developed that the new stockholders were heartily in favor of the improvement, and the matter is now up to the old stockholders to decide the question. It looks as if this would be a paying investment for this company. Nearly every city in our State enjoys this day service and we can see no reason why it should not pay here. It is a drawback to our city in many ways not to have this service. The Paris Commercial Club has been handicapped a number of times in interesting manufacturing interests to locate in Paris by not being able to offer them electricity for power. Every enterprising citizen should give encouragement to this company in every way and try to secure this much needed improvement that will beyond a doubt benefit our city more than any other improvement you can mention at this time.

SPARED BY THE ENEMY.

A Dramatic Incident in the Career of General de Gallifet.

It was on that fatal day, Sept. 1, 1870, that General de Gallifet distinguished himself by commanding the cavalry charges intended to clear the elevation at Illy, with the view of opening a passage toward Floing, where it was hoped the army might retreat. The first charge overthrew the Eighty-third regiment of the Prussians and penetrated among the German troops, but the latter formed again rapidly after the retirement of the French cavalry.

General Ducrot then asked if they could renew the charge with what remained of the light cavalry and hussars, and then Gallifet answered in the words that have become historic: "As often as you wish, general, as long as a man remains!" The second charge was not so successful as the first. Only a few men, with their general at their head, succeeded in penetrating the first ranks of the enemy. It is known that the king of Prussia, who was watching the battle from the top of the hill of Marfee, exclaimed with admiration, "Oh, les braves gens!"

Just at this moment an astonishing event occurred in the midst of the battle. As Gallifet was returning with a few survivors, their horses for the most part wounded or foundered, he passed before the Nassau regiment. The Prussian officers ordered their men to cease fire and even struck up some of their guns. The French saluted and shouted, "Vive l'empereur!" and the German officers acknowledged the salute, some of them applauding. Westminster Gazette.

SCIENTIFIC FEEDING.

Health as a Primary Factor in Intelligent Living.

Health and success are so largely dependent upon balance, upon symmetry of development, physical and mental harmony, that we should do everything possible to secure that physical poise which also means mental and moral poise. A large part of our ills come from one sided development, caused by overstimulating some tissue cells and starving others—overfeeding and underfeeding. Scientific feeding, therefore, is of vast importance.

Overeating and improper eating are among the curses of the world. Think of the people who put all sorts of incompatibles into their stomachs at the same time and then use all sorts of nostrums to get rid of their bad effects.

One of the most pathetic sights in the world is that of a human being struggling hard to carry out his ambition, yet handicapping himself by his ignorance of physical laws.

What a pathetic figure Carlyle cut in the world—a one sided giant who might have been a symmetrical power, possessor of a colossal brain largely controlled by a dyspeptic stomach! He was cross and crabbed and did just the things that he did not want to do, things that he knew it would be better not to do, but he was the victim of starved nerves, of exhausted brain cells largely for want of common sense feeding.—Orison Swett Marden in Success Magazine.

A "Mite."

The difficulties experienced by our forefathers in trying to reckon money in very small proportions appear in the various values given to a "mite" in the sixteenth and seventeenth century books of commercial arithmetic. The original "mite" seems to have been a third of a Flemish penny, but the use of the word for the widow's coin of the New Testament made its regular English meaning half a farthing, and some old people may remember applying the name to the short lived nineteenth century coins of that value. In those old arithmetic books "mite" stands for various values not represented by actual coins, but obviously used in reckoning. A work of 1706 makes it one-twelfth of a penny, two sixteenth century books one-sixth of a farthing, and in 1674 Jeanke's arithmetic made it as little as one sixty-fourth of a penny.—London Chronicle.

Heroic Treatment.

In Guiana if a child is slow in its movements the parents apply an ant to the child instead of a whip to make it move faster. This little ant bites more cruelly than a mosquito, and its bite is apt to be troublesome afterward. As you can imagine, this treatment does not make the child kind to others, and the children of Guiana are said to be particularly cruel to animals. The little boys in Guiana do not reckon their age by years, but by their ability to endure pain. Until he gets to the point where he can let the Huru ant bite him without wincing he is considered merely a baby.

Sympathy.

He—It was a frightful moment when I received your letter telling me of the insuperable obstacle to our marriage. I would have shot myself, but I had no money to buy a revolver. She—Dearest, if only you had let me know.—Simplicissimus.

A Mean Friend.

"All the dust flies up my nose."
"Well, Cholly, maybe the city will pay you to parade the streets. Perhaps, instead of sweeping, it would be better to clean them by a vacuum process."—Kansas City Journal.

All the Difference.

"My wife is very bad," said a man at the Bloomsbury county court.
"You mean she is very ill. I hope she is not bad," replied the magistrate sympathetically.—London Telegraph.

Dividends From Poultry.

The Department of Agriculture has just issued a statement with reference to farm products and prices, making special mention of eggs and poultry. This report states that today, on the general farms, poultry pays the largest dividends, although it receives the least attention. The price of poultry and eggs in the last ten years has increased in price to the consumer faster than any other agricultural product, except bacon. Eggs have increased 47 per cent, poultry 37 per cent, being ten per cent higher than any other food product, such as potatoes, beef, pork, mutton, etc. In no case have grains increased in such proportion. Statistics show that Iowa leads in eggs, with Ohio second, Illinois third, and Missouri fourth. Iowa's egg crop amounts to more than $10,000,000 a year. But crop and price are two different matters, and it is interesting to note what a difference is received for eggs in the different States. The highest price a dozen is credited to Nevada, the average there being 20.88 cents. Montana is a very close second, with Washington next. California is fourth and Oregon fifth, with an average of 15 cents a dozen. The lowest price is credited to Texas, the average price being 7.7 cents. That State disposed of more than 58,000,000 at this average price.

Words to Freeze the Soul.

"Your son has consumption. His case is hopeless." These appalling words were spoken to Geo. E. Blevens, a leading merchant of Springfield, N. C., by two expert doctors—one a lung specialist. Then was shown the wonderful power of Dr. King's New Discovery. After three weeks use, writes Mr. Blevens, he was as well as ever I would not take all the money in the world for what it did for my boy. Infalible for Coughs and Colds, its the safest, surest cure of desperate Lung diseases on earth. 50c. and $1.00 at Oberdorfer's. Guarantee satisfaction. Trial bottle free.

France Dog Crop.

While the population of France is either at a standstill or declining, the country has managed to considerably increase its crop of dogs. In 1891 the dogs in France numbered 2,845,69; in 1900 the number was 1,500,000. But while all the dogs in France are taxed, the revenue from this source last year being $2,000,000, they are not all taxed alike. A watch dog is only taxed 50 cents a year, but a household pet, good for nothing costs the owner a tax of about $1.50 a year.

Up Before The Bar.

N. H. Brown, an attorney, of Pittsfield, Vt., writes: "We have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for years and find them such a good family medicine we wouldn't be without them." For Chills, Constipation, Biliousness or Sick Headache they work wonders. 25c. at Oberdorfer's.

Local Option Danville.

Danville has been under local option for lo, these many years, but the blind tiger still flourishes. Once in a while our neighbors get a move on and last week E. W. Lillard, who is Boyle's Representative in the Legislature, and fined $3,300 on forty-five indictments. He paid $300 in fines and agreed to close his drug store, provided the other fines were suspended which was agreed to by the court.

Bunk Raum, of color, was fined $100, on a charge of running a blind tiger, making a total of $300 paid in the last nine months.

Swept Over Niagara.

This terrible calamity often happens because a careless boatman ignores the river's warnings—growing ripples and faster current—Nature's warnings are kind. That dull pain or ache in the back warns you the kidneys need attention if you would escape fatal maladies—Dropy, Diabetes or Bright's disease. Take Electric Bitters at once and see backache fly and all your best feelings return. "After long suffering from weak kidneys and lame back, one $1.00 bottle wholly cured me," writes J. R. Blakeship, of Belk, Tenn. Only 50c. at Oberdorfer's.

County Dipping Tanks.

As the Federal Government has quarantined the State of Kentucky on account of scabbies, it is of vital importance that immediate steps be taken that will eliminate a disease that bampers one of the principal industries of the State. At a meeting of the Kentucky Sheep Breeders' Association, held at the State Fair grounds, a committee was appointed to take steps in this direction and suggest a plan, approved by the State Board of Health, to each County Judge, whereby he may secure from his fiscal court such appropriation as may be necessary to dip the sheep of that county.

The following plan was recommended by the committee, viz: That the County Judge call a meeting of his fiscal court and have such appropriation made as is necessary to establish a dipping tank in each magisterial district of his county, and that he have each sheep and goat owner in his county to dip the sheep in some dip approved by the Board of Animal Industry, Washington, D. C.

This can be done by the fiscal court paying for the installation of the dipping tank and charging a nominal fee of, say, five cents per head of each sheep dipped, and the county will be at no expense whatever, and this disease will be eradicated.

We also suggest that M. C. Rankin, Commissioner of Agriculture, appoint one man in each county, and to see that these plans are carried out, subject to the approval of the fiscal court.
Respectfully,
W. T. Chilton, Frank McKee and L. L.
Dorsey, committee.

State Grange to Meet Here.

The annual meeting of the Kentucky State Grange which will convene in this city on Tuesday and Wednesday October 26 and 27 is likely to be one of the largest gatherings seen in Paris for several years. In connection with the meeting of the grange the Paris Commercial Club will hold a tobacco and corn show in the basement of the court house which will attract farmers from Bourbon and surrounding country.

Five hundred Grangers are expected to be in attendance and it will be necessary for the Commercial Club to appoint a committee on entertainment and reception as Paris hotels will be insufficient to accommodate the visitors, many of whom will be accompanied by their wives.

The sessions of the Grange will be held in the circuit court room and will be presided over by F. P. Wolcott, Grand Master of Covington. Mayor James M. O'Brien will deliver the welcome address.

HONOR ROLL

OF Paris City School -- Report of Prosperous Term -- Names of Honor Students by Grades.

The schools are in the most prosperous condition we have ever known them to be at the close of the first month of the session. The attendance (average daily) is sixteen more than for September 1908, in the white, and four more in the colored schools. The enrollment is twenty more in the white and fourteen more in the colored schools.

In all my experience I have never seen so large a school governed with so little friction, nor pupils begin a year's work with greater promise of success.
Many boys who were considered rather bad boys last year are now classed with the good boys. Our policy looks to this great goal. Most of the children in reach of the compulsory law are in school. Quite a few that come under the "Child Labor Law" are neither in school nor at work. Many who have passed their sixteenth birthday are out of school and mostly idle. This condition is a menace to the town. Some one has well said that a town can no more be prosperous with a portion of its population, wracked intellectually or morally, than a man can be healthy with a diseased limb.

Every citizen should be interested not only in the education of his own children. If any children of Paris grow up in ignorance and vice (and the idle will inevitably do so), they cannot but be burden on the city. Somebody must support them, no matter how they get their living. Hence for the sake of our city's welfare, and for the sake of humanity, we appeal to every man and woman to assist in getting boys and girls into school. We have, we trust, a pardonable pride in the excellence of our public schools and are anxious to have them accomplish the greatest possible good. The honor roll being small this month does not mean that the pupils have not done well. It only means that it takes time to change the current of energy from the vacation channel to the student's channel. This is being done, and next month we hope to present you a larger roll.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear.
There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever: nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give one hundred dollars for any case of deafness, caused by catarrh, that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Will Contest Order.

The teachers of Jefferson county, outside of the city of Louisville, will contest in the courts the ruling of State Superintendent of Public Instruction Crabbe, which fixed the maximum of 100 pupils on which a teacher may draw salary. Some teachers instruct as high as 200 scholars, based on the State appropriation of $4 50 per pupil, and there has been no limit retrograde in the maximum. P. C.
Crabbe's order is side to mean a reduction in a large number of salaries throughout the State.

THEATRICAL.

"ST. ELMO."

"St. Elmo," the novel that every woman knows, and every man will accordingly be obliged to take her to see, has been dramatized at last, with the full consent and approval of the authoress, Mrs. J. Evans Wilson, and will be the special attraction at the Paris Grand, matinee and evening, Wednesday, Oct. 13.

The plot of "St. Elmo" hinges on a duel, in which the offending principal, Murray Hammond, is killed. A young country girl, Edna Earl, by accident witnesses the encounter, and is profoundly impressed with the horrors of the code duello; and while she tacitly connives at the escape of the slayer, she considers him a murderer. Shortly afterwards the death of her grandfather, Aaron Hunt, throws her on her own resources, and she finds a place as companion in the home of Mrs. Murray. To her horror and surprise she recognizes in the son of her protector the very man who she, not knowing the causes of the encounter, has regarded as a cold-blooded man-slayer. But while St. Elmo is brooding over his bitter chapter of the past, he has become a cynic and a woman-hater, he is still a gentleman of culture and attracts the ambitious girl by his intellect and personality, although she can not fathom him.

The two are thrown together, and the gentle girl finds it impossible to resist the fascination of the man whose hands are stained with human blood. On the other hand the born aristocrat falls in love with the charming plebeian, and determines to woo and win her. But "the course of true love never did run smooth" and the romance of St. Elmo, Murray and Edna Earl is unfinished until just before the final curtain falls, and this dramatic suspense is said to be so intense and sustained that the audience never knows how it is going to turn out until this time. The comedy elements of the play are contributed naturally and "in the period" by an old darkey servant of the Murrys and a "po' white" family who are friendly to Edna. The scenes are all laid in the South, in the vicinity of Chattanooga, Tenn., and at "La Bodega" the home of the Murrys in Georgia and the period gives opportunity for quaint costuming.

"The Yankee Doodle Detective," with James Kyrle MacCrudy, the well-known actor author, will be the attraction at the Paris Grand Friday, Oct. 15, with appropriate scenery and a cast of incomparable excellence.

The play is in four acts and chief among them is night at Coney Island, showing the great light effects of Dreamland and Luna Park. Every child will want to see the "Yankee Doodle Detective" and parents are promised a clean wholesome entertainment for their children. There is much to delight the young and nothing to offend the most careful guardian.

"Night Riders" Begin Work.

Early Saturday morning 25 masked men visited the home of Edward Johnson at Willow, Ky., and set fire to his tobacco barn, which contained 15,000 pounds of tobacco. The barn and tobacco, together with a lot of farming implements, were destroyed. No insurance.

The men approached on horses, wearing white covers. A tenant on the farm was aroused and compelled to show the night riders where the barn was, after which the torch was applied, the band standing by until the fire had got under good headway, when they galloped away, firing their revolvers and leaving instructions to everybody to sign up or suffer the consequences.

Johnson had refused to pool his tobacco, notwithstanding the fact that notices had been sent out in that section instructing all to pool their tobacco. His loss is $2,000.

Governor Willson has 25 soldiers, ordered to prevent outrages, stationed at Cadda, Pendleton county, eight miles from the scene of the Johnson fire.

A. W. Hedgecock, another farmer and tobacco buyer living in the same vicinity, lost tobacco in a building burned by night riders a few nights ago.

Henry T. Duncanson Sr. was nominated for city representative in place of George A. Farra, who withdrew. Dan O'Brien was declared to have been unfairly nominated for Magistrate in the Fifth District convention on September 4, and J. F. Croghan was named in his stead.

Coleridge's Imagination.

From his early youth Coleridge lived in a world of books and dreams, yet his favorite walk seems to have been the Strand, the last place in the world for a poet to lose himself in reverie. As he strolled down the street he imagined himself swimming the Hellespont, the feat of which other poets had written and which the poet Byron was to accomplish later. Once while the mind of Coleridge was thus far from the busy Strand he absently thrust his hands before him in the manner of one swimming. Suddenly one hand came in contact with a gentleman's pocket.

The gentleman, thinking to capture a thief, seized the hand and exclaimed: "What! So young and so wicked!" He accused the poor, poetic boy of an attempt at pocket picking.

With some fright and a few tears the boy explained, and we can imagine that words did not fail him who was to become the most brilliant talker of his age. The gentleman was delighted with Coleridge's imagination, which could turn the Strand into the Hellespont. The intelligence of the young Leander made the stranger inquire into Coleridge's tastes, and when he found the boy liked books, he opened for him a subscription at the circulating library in Cheapside.—Westminster Gazette.

Al Wilson at Lexington.

The singing ambassador of German dialect, Al. H. Wilson, will appear at the Lexington Opera House Tuesday and Wednesday. Mr. Wilson is so well and favorably known that the mere announcement of his coming should be sufficient to fill the theatre, more especially so since he comes to us this season in a new play with the comedy title of "Metz in Ireland." This play is entirely different from anything attempted by Mr. Wilson in the past and contains a greater musical element. Manager Ellis has provided a capable cast who will take proper care of the several characters and appropriate scenery and electrical effects will be utilized. Considerable humor is created by the rollicking "Metz" when he meets the witty goosens and the pretty and light-hearted collectors of the land of the Shamrock. Several new songs with such charming titles as "Love Thoughts," "Erin's Isle," "The Banshee," "The Nightingale Song" and "Little Jimmie Murphy" will be rendered by Mr. Wilson during the performance. A large and efficient chorus will sing the old time songs of Erin and a specially arranged medley of Mr. Wilson's famous songs that include the "Teakettle Song," "Helen," "The Winding of the Farn," "Gretchen," "Wilson's Lullaby," "Under the Harvest Moon" and "Fairer Flower of All."

Hurst Officially Nominated.

William Randolph Hearst has decided to read the Republican-Fusion ticket for Mayor of New York, and was officially nominated last Monday night. Hearst's friends predict he stands ready to make another whirlwind campaign such as he made in 1905, and was only defeated by a small plurality. Charles F. Murphy Tammany leader, branded the entrance of Hearst into the mayoralty contest as a "deal." Judge Gaynor, the Democratic nominee, declined to accept any campaign contributions, and declared he was willing to stand on his record of life work for good government.
